

Tourism Management and Ecotourism Development Course

The Kenya Wildlife Service Training Institute (KWSTI) is one of the training units of the Kenya Wildlife Service, and is located in Naivasha, 90 km from Nairobi. The institute provides specialized training in Natural Resources Management and Tourism Development. We are pleased to announce the above course that is designed to equip tourism practitioners with knowledge, skills and attitudes to manage tourism activities and enterprises in a dynamic environment

Target Participants: People working in the Tourism industry and Conservation sectors.

Course Set-up: A residential course consisting of lectures, participatory discussions and field excursions.

Course Dates: 15th August to 15th September 2010. Application Deadline: 2nd August 2010.

Application forms are available at a non-refundable fee of KES. 1,500 (USD 30 for non-East Africans) from the principal's office or downloaded from www.kws.go.ke

COURSE FEES:

East Africans - KES. 95,000

Non - East Africans - USD. 1,700 (These fees cover tuition, meals, accommodation and field excursions)

For further details contact:

The Principal, Kenya Wildlife Service Training Institute,
P. O. Box 842-20117 Naivasha – Kenya, Tel: (+254) 050-2020267/ 2020577/ 2021329 Fax: (+254) 050-2021328, E-mail: principal@kwsti.ac.ke

Tourism Management and Ecotourism Development Course

The Kenya Wildlife Service Training Institute (KWSTI) is one of the training units of the Kenya Wildlife Service, and is located in Naivasha, 90 km from Nairobi. The institute provides specialized training in Natural Resources Management and Tourism Development. We are pleased to announce the above course that is designed to equip tourism practitioners with knowledge, skills and attitudes to manage tourism activities and enterprises in a dynamic environment

Target Participants:

People working in the Tourism industry and Conservation sectors.

Course Set-up:

A residential course consisting of lectures, participatory discussions and field excursions.

Course Dates:

15th August to 15th September 2010.

Application Deadline:

2nd August 2010.

Application forms are available at a non-refundable fee of KES. 1,500 (USD 30 for non-East Africans) from the principal's office or downloaded from www.kws.go.ke

COURSE FEES:

East Africans - KES. 95,000

Non - East Africans - USD. 1,700

(These fees cover tuition, meals, accommodation and field excursions)

For further details contact:

The Principal,

Kenya Wildlife Service

Training Institute,

P. O. Box 842-20117

Naivasha – Kenya,

Tel: (+254) 050-2020267/ 2020577/
2021329

Fax: (+254) 050-2021328,

E-mail: principal@kwsti.ac.ke